

The failure of local broadcasters to provide the content that interests me is the primary reason I became a XM subscriber. Again another 'Special Interest' is expecting protection from "Big Brother". Please do not restrict the access to the programming the public deserves.

Thanks for your time.

Tom Landholm